Bank Buys Life Insurance for Borrowers.

Since the Government no longer insures the payment of these loans, each borrower now pays 25c. per $100 of loan that is not paid back according to the terms of the loan. The insurance cover was procured for FHA mortgages, which is unusual.

The period over which the monthly payments may extend is subject to the nature and length of the loan. The period of which the Government insures the payment of these loans is so long as the payment of the monthly charges has been made to the bank. The period of the Government insurance is subject to the payment of the monthly charges, which are
